IMAGO

Lifelong learners, creators, and shenanigans.

“Our goal as a company is to support work that is focused on social-emotional learning (SEL) and to create learning environments that are holistic,” says Edgar Blunt, co-founder of IMAGO. Edgar and his team want to embed SEL into all human experiences and bring about meaningful perspectives of success in our society.

IMAGO was founded in 2010 and joined the T.W. Patterson Building in August 2017. Located on the 8th floor, IMAGO has been a spirited, exciting addition to our family of tenants. If you have ever visited their offices, you would quickly see interoffice memos have been replaced with colorful Post-it® Notes and ordinary office chairs, replaced with comfy bean bags.

“Engaged and fulfilled humans are better prepared to take on complex challenges in our world.”

They take an important social issue and apply their own creative, inspirational methods. IMAGO strives to help K-12 and adult learners understand that learning is a process and not a single job or destination. They seek to achieve this in a human-focused and scalable way.
